OLD STUFF

Name of Organization and/or Individuals: Asian Pacific American Student Union

Name of Project: ADPIA Night: United By Diversity

Responsible Individual: Daniel Chang

Email: dchang3@uoregon.edu

Date of Request: 2/4/14

Project Description: We are organizing this event expecting approximately 90 people. It will last for two hours, starting at 6 and ending at 8. The entire student body, who live on and off campus of University of Oregon, and the greater community of Eugene is invited to come, specifically those who currently live in the residence halls and anyone who identifies as a person of color with a background with Chinese, Korean, Filipino and Pacific Islander, Indian, or Hawaiian culture. ADPIA Night is one of APASU's recent annual event where performers with Asian, Pacific Island, and Southeast Asian background are given the opportunity to show off their cultural heritage through various dances and performances. The primary goal of this event is to show the cultural diversity of a variety of groups representing different countries that spread across the Asian continent. Students who come to this event will see the beauty of the diversity of Asian and Desi culture and hopefully come out from this event with a better appreciation for the many cultural identities that the Asian continent encompasses. The date is Saturday, March 1st, 2014 and will be held at Global Scholar Hall's Great Room.

Name of Organization and/or Individuals: UO Campus Zero Waste Program

Name of Project: RecycleMania Workshops

Responsible Individual: Robyn Hathcock

Email: rjhath@uoregon.edu

Date of Request: 2/14/14

Project Description: The Campus Zero Waste Program (formerly Campus Recycling) plans events in support of the UO's participation in RecycleMania, going on now. Holding events focused on residents are a good opportunity to promote participation in RecycleMania. The Program is requesting funds to help support two events that will be both fun and functional for residents. These workshops are:

1) T-shirt Silkscreening – Resident can bring their own or chose from a selected variety of secondhand t-shirts. All other printing supplies will be onsite (inks, images, freehand station).

2) Express Yourself Workshop – using a myriad of sticky vinyl (adhesive sign material), residents will be able to recover recycled binders, buttons, their own reusable water bottles, create their own bumper stickers and/or create a mandala from recycled bottle caps.

Total Cost of Project: $200

Total Requested from RHA: $100

Account/Index: RREC

Account Name: Not Given

Budget Line: Res Hall Support

Cost Breakdown / Alternate Funding:

Of the requested $100 from RHA, $50 will go toward purchasing secondhand shirts from Value Village. The remaining $50 will go toward the cost of the facilitating artist (total $100) for supplies and labor. The Zero Waste Program will cover the other $100 plus staff labor to provide additional onsite help for residents participating in events.
