Project Description: For the past two years, the Global Scholars Hall has partnered with the PE and Rec Center to offer hour-long Group Fitness classes in the Great Room on Wednesday evenings. RHA has funded each previous request and the classes have been especially successful in winter term of 2014. In fact, the instructor had to ask our custodial staff to move all of the desks and chairs out of the great room because classes were drawing upwards of 50 participants. They have also been increasingly successful in drawing students from across campus versus just GSH. As these classes typically cost money to participate in at the Rec Center, students have been pleased to see the classes offered at no charge in the GSH. In winter term, we advertised these opportunities over the RHA listserv, the student staff listserv, and the professional staff listserv. We also posted the events on the GSH facebook page each week and posted fliers in each residence hall. We also posted the flier at the Rec Center, noting that it was for residential students only. We will continue using these methods to advertise for spring term of 2014.
