Thanks for playing. The RHA Leadership Hangout is happening May 29 at 6PM in GSH 132. The winner of the Hall Points competition will be announced at our last General Council meeting. Also, certificates will be handed out for RHA's Leadership Certification Program at the final General Council meeting. If you have questions regarding your certification, ask me.

- Natasha- RHA's last event of the year, cake study break, will be on June 5th from 7-10pm in the LLC Performance Hall. Two masseuses will be on hand to give chair massages, you can make your own stress ball, have some sparkling cider, and of course, free cake!
- Kelly- As of today I learned I have an ASPAC meeting tomorrow, so we will see how it will go. Also, Josh and I worked on ordering plaques for the televisions, and trophies for Hall Points and the Hall Olympics. I had a meeting earlier today to discuss tour policies in the halls, as living in McClain has been a very educational experience about that. We are working on finding solutions that fit the needs of students and the wants of the university. I just wanted to remind you, next week is our last meeting! We are still having cake study break, and I expect you all to be there
