

RHA General Council
5/28/14

Welcome to the last general council of the 2013-2014 school year! This years outgoing exec wants to thank you for your hard work and participation during these meetings and all RHA activities. We wish the best for the incoming exec and hope you all had a wonderful time!

NRHH Update

Hosting their last meeting next Monday. They're doing a point drive Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of finals week in both Hamilton and LLC dining. They're doing a week of kindness event next week, if you see them in their T-Shirts, give them a smile

TV Policy Update

We ordered plaques that said basically, "This TV brought to you by RHA" so people recognize who gave them to the residents and also to get RHA's name out their. We're waiting on mounts to be able to put them up.

Hall Government Updates

- Walton North- they're planning a movie/game night this Sunday for their hall and they're ordering a lot of pizza.
- Bean West- they're planning a BBQ
- Riley- they're planning an end of the year event with pizza
- Walton South- they have a quiz bowl event this Saturday
- LLC- they had their last meeting on Tuesday
- Ham West- on the 31st they have a hangout with the crew with popsicles
- Bean East- tomorrow they're handing out free ice cream. They're also doing tye-dye next week
- Ham East- getting donuts and Pizza for their RA's, and also donuts for the winning hall of their pencil drive
- GSH- they have a staff appreciation event on Friday. From 6-7 in Fresh tomorrow there will be a soccer player from Colombia, stop by and talk!

For Exec Updates we gave updates and we officially passed the baton on to our new people! These included sappy statements, gag gifts, and tears.

Exec Updates

- Josh: RHA's final Leadership Hangout is happening TOMORROW (5/29) at 6PM in GSH 132. Fun times and free snacks, what do you have to lose? Congratulations to Rebecca Lee, Andrew Dunn, and Michael McIntosh for being the first class of Leadership Certification recipients through RHA. Trophies for Hall Olympics (Congrats again, Hamilton East!) and Hall Points (Congratulations LLC!) should be arriving tomorrow.
- Kelly: I may have an ASPAC Meeting tomorrow and all the proposals are in the Housing abyss, that is about it.
- Natasha: Cake study break is next Thursday from 7-10PM in the LLC Performance hall
- Tika: it's been a pleasure writing meeting minutes for you all, I'm sorry that it's over, but it's been a blast. I officially took my name off of the funding request forms, so your money issues are no longer my problem! Allons-y everyone 😊

Advisor Updates

She loves the exec! (We're touched) She encouraged all of us to think of how we've grown this year and the friendships we've made!
