INTRODUCTIONS & WELCOMES (8:05)
- Your executive board (8:05)
  - President
  - Vice President
  - RHA Rep
  - Treasurer
  - Prog. Coor.
  - E.A.R.
- Show of hands for different towers (North, Central, South) (8:07)
  - Name, Tower, and 3 items you would bring to a deserted island

TYPICAL MEETING (8:16)
- Executive Summaries from each Exec
- Event Chairs wishing to share requests
- Funding Requests
  - If it’s over $75, we have to vote to vote on it
  - Then table it, then we vote on it the following week
- Announcements/Upcoming Events
- Recognition (Polite Bragging)
- Adjournment
  - Every meeting, in an ideal world, will be under an hour

WRITTEN REQUESTS (8:19)
- Sent to President (Austin) or Vice-President (Kyle)
- For request of money
  - Need a summary of event
  - Projected budget of event

Question Asked: “What is our budget”
  - Flannigan answered, $3 per resident per term, comes in fourth week
  - “Does the money roll over?”
  - Austin answered, money rolls over per term, must be spent by the end of S. Term

RHA UPDATE (8:23)
- October 25th, 1-11 PM, open to all residents, isn’t required but highly recommended
- One keynote speaker, 16 different sessions, pick and choose
  - Individual and yourself
  - Team Building
  - Programming
- Lunch is provided, free food
- Actual conference is 1-7PM
- All of it convenes in GSH room 123
- You have to register, but then there is an event at 8
• Candy bar, DJ (hopefully), dance party at Great Room
• Registration is on the RHA site

Homecoming Parade on Friday, October 17th (8:27)
• 2-3pm: Float/golf cart decorating & cheer/song development outside Fresh! MarketCafe
• 3-3:30pm: Line up for parade on E 13th Ave in front of parking by Jaqua Center
• 3:30pm: Parade starts, make sure we cheer/sing when we stop by judges station

Hall Pranking, Furniture Moving, & Signage Moving (8:29)
• Remember this is supposed to be an inclusive and respectful community
• Don’t make work for others, do what you can to make less work for others
• Lounge furniture must remain in the lounges at all times
• Building signage must remain in place